THE LOVELY CAT

Once upon a time, there lived a fat man called Maviiri and his wife, Namyalo. Namyalo was very beautiful and kind to animals. She loved cats and dogs. So, Maviiri decided to buy a cat for her. She loved the cat because it caught a lot of rats and mice. Sometimes it even killed snakes.

One day, Maviiri's brother came to visit them. He was a very handsome smart man with long hair and short fingernails. When the cat saw him, it started making a soft sound while coming near him. He liked the cat and carried it on his laps. The cat started playing with him.

This cat enjoyed hunting in a dark forest. One Saturday, a rude man met it hunting. He got hold of it and twisted its neck until it died. Maviiri's wife looked for her cat but she could not find it. She went to the forest and found it dead.

Maviiri and his wife became sad after the death of their lovely cat. Maviiri promised to buy another cat for his wife and she became happy again.

Jimmy : Good morning, grandpa.

Grandpa: Good morning, Jimmy. What has brought you early to my garden of fruit today?

Jimmy : I have come to see the different sizes of fruit you have in the garden of fruit.

Grandpa: Oh! You are right, who told you that fruits have different sizes?

Jimmy : Our teacher did. He said there are small and big fruit.

Grandpa: Yes, your teacher was right. As you can see pineapples are bigger than oranges and guavas are smaller than avocados.

Jimmy : Grandpa, may you give me some fruit so that I can take to school for other children to see their different sizes?

Grandpa: That's fine, go ahead and pick what you like.

Jimmy : Thank you, grandpa.

Shapes! Shapes! Shapes!
Call us oval or triangular
Round or rectangular
With three sides, I become a triangle
Four equal sides, I am called a square
Or circle when I have a round shape.

Shapes! Shapes! Shapes!
With you all the time
Don't you like the circular pancakes?
What about the rectangular samosas
And the delicious oval paw paws.

Shapes! Shapes! Shapes!
The Mathematics teacher likes us
We find the length and the width
The teacher of English likes us too
We name the shapes of objects in his lesson
The Science and SST teachers like us as well.
